Questions for Reflection & Discussion

1. Do you know any non-Christians who are more “religious” than many of the Christians you know? How do you or should you react and/or treat them when you are around them?
2. Think of a time when God told you what to do, or not do, and you did the opposite. What was the result?
3. From the story of Jonah, what can we know about the nature of God? How might this knowledge affect the way we live and treat others?
